Raffle Fund Bankrupt!

Two weeks ago, Al Marino (now known as "Al of Spades") used his legendary psychic powers and came up as a four digit winner in the raffle. Rumor has it, though, that he invested the winnings, and now has to borrow lunch money. Here, Roman Morales tries his best wiles in order to gain favor with the champ. Maybe he'd have better luck if he hadn't soaked his hand before Row-Row-Rotary the previous week?

Family Members In Collusion?

Editor's Note: This story is not about an auto accident.

After witnessing his father's failed attempt to "share" the raffle winnings, Mitch Morales has allegedly plied shady techniques to keep the family in the game. Here, he apparently uses his right hand to skew tickets being drawn for the raffle as Terrie Mejia watches her daughter being used as the shill.

The President's Massage

The unofficial end of summer has come and gone and the school year has started. There should be a lot of happy moms and dads out there. That also means that the VIP (Very Important Pupil) program is about to start. I encourage everyone to try and attend at least one or even two this coming school year, it only takes a little time out of your busy schedules and the kids get so excited about the extra attention. Please plan on attending one soon. The first one is scheduled for the first Friday in October. Pam will be reminding us as the date gets closer.

Thank you, Jerry, for bring a new weekly game to the club, "Name That Rotarian".

The Rotary Yard Sale is coming up so if you have any unwanted stuff please consider bringing it to the Sale. Tex Everson and Operation Santa Clothes will be benefiting through your efforts.

As I mentioned last week, there has been a fund set up for injured Covina Peace Officer Scott Hanson's family. Officer Hanson was a volunteer for our VIP program. There are two ways you can help. This Saturday, September 13, there will be a fund raiser/car wash at the Masonic Home on Second Avenue next to the Police/Fire stations. There has also been a fund set up to help his family, Officer Hanson has a wife and two kids age 14 and 9. The Board of Directors of this club voted to match any donation made by Covina Sunrise Rotary members up to a total club matching of $500.

Make your checks payable to "The Scott Hanson Fund" and drop off the checks at the San Gabriel Valley Postal Credit Union. If you can help in any way, either by attending the fund raiser this Saturday or by making a donation, I'm sure the Covina Police Officer's association and Scott's family would be most grateful. Be sure to keep Scott and his family in your thoughts and prayers. This is a great way to show that Rotarians truly "Lend a Hand".

Christmas in October is quickly approaching, keep selling those tickets. I saw a great idea from our friendly printer Bill Hammett. Unfortunately I got a bill from him, but in that bill there was the flyer announcing Christmas in October. Great idea Bill, I'm sure he will sell a lot of tickets. Time is flying by, I can't believe two months has already gone by. I'm having a great time and if you have any suggestions please feel free to call me, chances are pretty good I won't tell you to jam it.

Reminder that there is a board meeting tomorrow at 7:15am at Coco's, members are welcome to attend and attendance counts as a make up for a missed meeting.

— John

Today's Program:

Today's program features a "Visioning Workshop" presented by Assistant City Manager Karen Gallavan along with Kevin Stapleton and our own Bobbi Kemp.

Next Week: Covina Police and Fire personnel will demo the new AED (Automatic Emergency Device) which provides emergency capabilities to non-emergency personnel.
