Xmas In October News!

The Pomeroy's have acquired almost all the silent auction items, but there's room for a few more - If you have anything to donate, please see Pam. Ed Cooper has been busily securing food vendors, and has commitments from Checkers, El Pollo Loco, and Dockside Grill. If you have a lead on desserts, please see Ed. Galen is working on craft vendor setup, Rotary insurance has been obtained, Mimmo is getting the liquor license, and Bobbi is tracking ticket sales. We will also have students from FBLA helping during the event.

There will be two silent auction tables - Rachel Catania is chairing one, and Vikki Stapleton is chairing the other. Terry Wysocki will be handling audio visual setup. There are lots of opportunities for you (and your spouse) to be involved. When the work assignment sheet comes around tomorrow, make sure you put your name down in a couple of spots.

Here's another opportunity to help.... This year we will have four shuttle vans, rather than the two we had last year. To help defray the cost of this added expense, we are going to prepare a "Donor Board" listing sponsors of the shuttle vans. The donor board will be on display at the entrance of the event. For a donation of $50, we will list your name (or Company name) on the Donor Board. Great advertising opportunity! Please make your check payable to Operation Santa Clothes and give it directly to me so I can make sure your name gets on the board.

The President's Message

Just like the Fresh Squeeze, I'm back. Thank you Madame X for filling in for me, as always you did a great job.

We have a couple of new faces in the club, David Little and Peggy Delach. I am excited to have them in our club. They will official be inducted by the District Governor on November 12 during the Governor's official visit. That meeting is on a Wednesday and we will be meeting for lunch here at South Hills Country Club at 12:10 pm with the Covina Noon Club, the West Covina Sunrise Club, the West Covina Noon Club and the Industry Club. Please plan on attending and show your support for our newest members.

I would like to thank Ed Cooper for his efforts in bringing back some former members, Carol Cugno and Bob Potter (err, I mean Robert C. Potter). We still have a few that we are working on. Please take a few minutes of your time to welcome back Carol and Robert and welcome our newest members Peggy and David.

Hugh Ledford will be hosting the next Symposium / Fellowship get together this Friday, October 10th. Please see him for available space and join in on the fun. If no space is available why not plan on hosting the next one? We need a location for November!

Sign up sheets should be going around today for Christmas in October, please find some time to help out. I would like to see every member out at the Kellogg House October 19th, either before, during or after, or even all three. Let's make this year the most successful to date. Thanks for your efforts and commitment to Covina Sunrise Rotary.

— John

Today's Program:

This week's program features an excellent speaker whose presence has been arranged for this fine assemblage by young Galen. Unfortunately, this paper was unable to secure the identity of said guest at press

Terry's Drink of the Week

Forget about your martini bar. The latest rage in cocktails, according to local mixologists, is the Mojito. Born in Cuba in the early 1900's, the Mojito is new to most people and is a very refreshing summer drink (you have until the end of Autumn to catch up, though). The original recipe grinds mint in the glass but this tastes bitter and leaves junk in your teeth. Here's a variation that is outstanding and easy to make:

Prepare a mint syrup:

1 cup of sugar
1 cup of water
1.5 cups of fresh mint leaves
Boil several minutes until the leaves look like mushy spinach then strain syrup into a bottle.

Now mix the drink:

2 oz light rum
1 oz mint syrup
1 lime's juice
Add ice and fill with soda water. Top with fresh mint leaves and a slice of the lime rind.

Yard Sale Update

The Covina Bowl has agreed to let us use their parking lot on Saturday, November first for our yard sale. We need a couple of volunteers to help out with this project, so let Wes know if you can give a little of your time. And, hang on to those "treasures" just a little longer...
