Rotary Joint Bowl Party!

This morning members from both clubs are still settling down from the wild Sunday frivolities of the big Super Bowl Party at the Casa de Wysocki. Jerry Gaynor took the first quarter's prize but then Mary Hubbert took both 2nd and 3rd quarter prizes from the pool. Finally, Ed Edwards from the "other" club came in for the big win at the end of game. The food and drink were plentiful and, even though we didn't see the Lingerie Bowl at halftime, all agreed they got more than an eyeful with the show anyway.

The President's Message

Good Morning! I hope that all the football fans enjoyed the Super Bowl, and how about that halftime "show", you really had to be paying attention to catch it!

I hope everyone is getting excited about the Auction on May 15th. Judy Starns is getting things in place to make this an extra great event, start telling your friends and business associates to save the date.

Thank you to the membership (I think) for sending me to the Rotary District 5300 President's Advance a couple of weeks ago up in Arrowhead at the beautiful UCLA Conference Center. (I had to get in a plug in for UCLA because not much of anything else good has happened for the Bruins this year). One thing that I learned or should I say reaffirmed my belief is that we have a great club. I know attendance has been a hot issue, but I'm happy to say compared to other clubs in our District we are doing a darn good job in attendance. Our monthly attendance varies around 75-80%. Talking to other Club Presidents, the average attendance is 60%. Remember that you can make up a meeting up to two weeks before or after the meeting you missed. We have a lot of ways to make up meetings. I would like to personally thank Judge Tom Falls about approaching the board about his current work situation and the effect it will be having on his attendance. Tom got transferred to the Pomona Court and needs to leave early three times a month to get to work on time. Thank you Tom for being open about your work commitments, you have the board's blessing to be a "Scooter".

If you don't have anything to do this weekend and you have an extra $100 or so, how about joining Joey Buttafuco and the gang and attend this year's Rotary Foundation District Dinner, now doesn't that sound better than sitting on the couch having to rub your partner's feet? If it wasn't the First Lady's birthday I would be all over that. See Annie Gee for any last minute details. And thank you Annie for your help as being our Club representative for the Foundation Committee.

Thank you Terry and Sue Wysocki for hosting the Super Bowl party. It was a great time and you have the best TV of anyone I know. When I grow up I want to be just like Terry. No wait, that isn't possible because Terry hasn't grown up yet either, well that's ok, I still want to be you. The table sitting rotation worked good for about one meeting, let's try it again and see if can mix it up again. The District newsletter is out, go the District website to view it, www.district5300.org.

If you notice someone not at the meeting, don't be afraid to call them and say "Hi, we miss you." Have a great week and please "Lend a Hand".
—John

Today's Program:

At press time, the Fresh Squeeze has not been informed as to the identity of the speaker scheduled to show up this week. In fact, the Fresh Squeeze isn't even sure the Program Chair will be here either.

Dear Puzzled:

Remember what I tell all the boys, "It's not worth buying the pig just to get a little sausage".

Yet Another Kid!

Well, had anyone bothered last week to walk around and gather letters from the Squeeze to learn the identity of the mystery kid, they would have easily found out that it was Wes Uptergrove. This may be the last kid pic since few people in this club have the facilities to get their childhood pics saved in digital format. Anyway, this week's tyke is shown on his Gift Horse, which led him to his destiny and career (hint hint).
