Welcome President Judy!

The big Kickout was held a couple of weeks ago and the Squeeze is back to welcome Judy Starns as our new President. The Kickout featured the usual great food and drink along with an impromptu golf game with special Plumber's clubs fashioned by Boline. The much anticipated video was experiencing some significant technical problems but the reply scheduled for today and subsequent VHS/DVD's produced from it should resolve the disaster. Today is Judy's first meeting and she is our second female in that position. At the kickout, she accepted the transfer of power from John Pellizzon with all the dignity the occasion merited as John was seen heading toward the bar. John's plans include getting fined a lot more and possible acceptance back at the rowdy table which he left one year ago.

The President's Corner

Good morning, fellow Rotarians! Welcome to a new year with Rotary and a new President. A am honored to hold this position and I will do my best to make it another great year. I am sure you will all agree that John Pellizzon did a GREAT job! He has been a big help for me in preparing ffor my year. I have had some catching up to do, but everyone has been very supportive and offered to help (just remember who you are, I may take you up on it).

This year being the 100th anniversary of Rotary makes it very exciting for me to serve as your President. As our International President, Glenn Estess Sr. said, “We will celebrate our enormous success toward achieving a polio-free world – our givet to the children to come. We will celebrate a century of growth and expansion: 1.2 million members serving in 166 countries.”

As far as our club goes, we will be having our first Board of Directors meeting on July 14th, and doing a lot of brain storming on what our club projects are now, and what we would like to see done this year. We will also be preparing a calendar of events, so we can plan ahead, and have an eventful and fun year. Please consider filling out the survey form, so we have a good input from all of you. Thanks again for your support and GO ROTARY! And, NO, I will NOT be wearing a cheerleader's outfit.

— Judy

Today's Program:

We supposedly will be able to witness a reviewing of the infamous Kickout video today. A plethora of problems plagued the production during the editing process and at one point, it looked like all was lost except for the original raw footage. At press time (12:35am today) the video appears to have been cut with only a few very minor glitches remaining. These are expected to be resolved in the next few days and the final video will soon be available on DVD and VHS upon request (and a small handling fee). See Terry for details.

Really Long Joke of the Week

A little boy goes to his dad and asks, "What is politics?"

Dad says, "Well son, let me try to explain it this way: I'm the breadwinner of the family, so let's call me capitalism. Your Mom, she's the administrator of the money, so we'll call her the Government. We're here to take care of your needs, so we'll call you the people. The nanny, we'll consider her the Working Class. And your baby brother, we'll call him the Future. Now, think about that and see if that makes sense,"

So the little boy goes off to bed thinking about what dad had said. Later that night, he hears his baby brother crying, so he gets up to check on him. He finds that the baby has severely soiled his diaper. So the little boy goes to his parents' room and finds his mother sound asleep. Not wanting to wake her, he goes to the nanny's room. Finding the door locked, he peeks in the keyhole and sees his father in bed with the nanny. He gives up and goes back to bed. The next morning, the little boy says to his father, "Dad, I think I Understand the concept of politics now." The father says, "Good son, tell me in your own words what you think politics is all about." The little boy replies, "Well, while Capitalism is screwing the Working Class, the Government is sound asleep, the People are being ignored and the Future is in deep shit."

"Hey, Kelly, wake up! I'm not President any more. Isn't that exciting? Now I'll be able to do more things with you! Won't that be fun? Kelly? Won't it? Huh? Hey, Kelly..."

Back to membership: unfortunately, I need to announce the resignations of three members: John Roach is moving on to direct the Carlsbad School District, and both Carol Cugno and Azucena Hjertstedt have resigned due to work constraints. Please call and wish them all your best.

If you haven't done it already, please send in your District Conference registration today. If you can only make it one day, please plan on coming out on Saturday. We will be having the hospitality tent going on with the Noon Club plus our club will be going out to dinner on Saturday night. It should be a fun filled night.

Only four more but I'm not counting.

— John
