CSR goes to the Dump!

Last Wednesday, a handful of our CSR members took advantage of the offer from Athen's Services and went on a most incredible tour of the MRF facility in Industry. Wes, Terry, Don, Hugh, and Henry, along with their dis-taff affiliates, were given VIP treatment by Dennis Chiappetta as the group was shown the hundreds of people, massive machinery, and technological marvels that process the trash we all produce. The scale and scope of the operation was so immense as to be jaw-dropping. Custom designed machines the size of a house, processed tons of garbage in scenes reminiscent of a "Mad Max" movie as we all watched. Those of you that didn't make it REALLY missed out on a great opportunity.

The President's Spoke

Some people wander around the world in an altered state of mind. Rotarians wander around altering the state of the world. As members of the Covina Sunrise Rotary, we clothe children every year—thousands over the course of a decade. We are committed to ridding the world of polio and that project is almost finished. Throughout the world we are giving communities water wells and providing families with various means of water purification to protect them from parasites and diseases that we can't even spell. In conjunction with our Covina High School Interact Club, we are brightening the lives of orphans at Casa Hogar, while giving our local teenagers a sense of purpose. Who would not be proud to be a member of Covina Sunrise Rotary. Everyone of us is part of a wondrous, altruistic force that reaches out to every corner of the world from Covina to the Congo and on to Sweden and the Amazon. We are simply making the world a better place for all mankind -- one Tuesday breakfast at a time.

Westerday

Today's Program:

Today's presentation is "Water Supplies, Drought, and Delta Impacts" by Mr. Stephen Arakawa, manager of the Water Resource Management Group (MWD).

Joke of the Week

A man from the Welfare department was interviewing a lady who had requested assistance and he was reviewing her form.

He noted that she stated she had three sons, but only has one name listed, "Leroy".

"Yes", she replied, "All three sons are named Leroy."

"Why would you do that?", inquired the government worker.

"It makes it much easier to get things done.", was her reply.

"Leroy, time for bath." And they all would get in the bath.

"Leroy, time for supper." And they all would come to the table.

Amazed, the government worker then inquired how did she get personal if she wanted to talk with just one of her sons.

"Oh that's easy", she replied. "I just call them by their last name."

Event Looking for a Home

Fundraiser Chairman and President Elect Galen is looking for a place to party. Last weekend, he and the Pres and VP went to inspect the National Guard Armory building as a potential site. Unfortunately, the room was judged too small and too acoustically live for the event, but the search goes on. If you know of any possible locations that could host our Bootleggers Ball, get in touch with Galen.
