Nooners Throw Egg Hunt!

The Covina (Noon) Rotary Club is having their annual Easter Egg Hunt this coming Sunday, April 4th, from 2 to 5 PM. The event will be held at the Wysocki’s house and, in the spirit of the season, the Club would like to open it up to CSR families as well. They have openings for about ten more kids on a first come first served basis. Kids will be admitted at no charge and will participate in an Egg Hunt, Jump House, food and drink, and will receive a gift basket. Adults will be charged $15/person and will receive food and more adulterish drink but can’t play in the Jump House. If you’d like to bring the family out for a day of fun with fellow Rotarians, contact Dee Winter via email no later than Thursday at ildiwinter@earthlink.net for more information and to make reservations.

The President's Massage

Good Morning! Welcome to new member Dan Koenn, it's great to have you as part of the club, you are going to be an asset to the club. The thing that impresses me most about Dan is his commitment to attendance. Dan owns and operates a real estate appraisal company. He has committed that Tuesday mornings are for Rotary and will not take appointments on that day. Thank you Dan for your commitment to Rotary, you are an example that we all could follow. Thank you to everyone that attended the Auction meeting last Wednesday, Judy has been doing a fantastic job of organizing the troops for a truly successful Auction and your help and participation is needed, both from the new and old members. It was mentioned to me last year as Committee Chairman figurehead that it was nice to see the newer members being involved. I thought so too but also thought that it is every member's responsibility to participate in the events of the club, both old and young (just ask Henry Morgan). When Judy calls to have you participant please be ready to say "yes". Congratulations to Jon and Pam Pomeroy, who will received the "Hero of the Heart" award from the Covina Valley USD. A

"Hero" is someone who has a heart for children and public education and who has made a positive difference at a school or district site. I am sure no one has to guess why Jon and Pam are deserving of this award. Congratulations Jon and Pam for the great work you do, we are all proud of your efforts.

Last thing, we need your help with the Squeeze, Terry has been being a great job with the Squeeze but he needs material, and not just jokes, we need some front page material. If anything good and interesting has happened to you please write a short paragraph and email it to Terry or if you have some dirt on another member, pass it on. Now, in the example set by Jon and Pam, please go out and "Lend a Hand". — John

Today's Program:

Today, our annual "Afterglow" (no, not that kind) meeting will take place. Awards will be presented to some of our most generous benefactors and supporters.

Tasteless Joke of the Week

A young blind boy is being tucked into bed by his Mother. The Mom says "Now Billy, pray really hard tonight and tomorrow, your wish will come true!". Billy says "Ok mommy" and goes to sleep. The next morning, Billy wakes up and screams "MOMMY! I'm still blind, my wish didn't come true!". The Mom answered, "I know - April Fools!"

Actual History Lesson

Ancient cultures, including those as varied as the Romans and the Hindus, celebrated New Year's Day on April 1. It closely follows the vernal equinox (March 20th or March 21st.) In 1582, Pope Gregory XIII ordered a new calendar which called for New Year's Day to be celebrated Jan. 1. In France, however, many people refused to accept the new date, and continued to celebrate New Year's Day on April 1. Other people began to make fun of these traditionalists, sending them on "fool's errands" or trying to trick them into believing something false. Hence, the French originated the phrase.

New Kid on the Block!

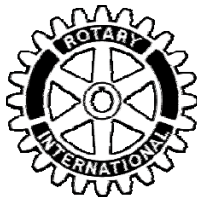

Dan Koenn has finally become an official CSR member after an exhausting attempt to see how many free meals he could get as a guest. Not counting the meals that were paid for by Wysocki though coercion of the Finemaster, Dan has collected enough free vittles to last him through the Summer. It's ironic to note that he should have to pay for today's meal, even though he'll probably be skipping his first official meeting.
